THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) The population of Uttaranchal is about 5% of the population of Uttar Pradesh. While population ratio between Uttar Pradesh and Uttaranchal is the general principle on which assets and liabilities are to be apportioned between the two successor States, it is not the criterion for allocation of services of Government employees.

(b) and (c) No Sir. As per provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2000, the Central Government alone is empowered to allocate the services of Government employees to Uttar Pradesh and Uttaranchal. The Central Government has issued Orders for final allocation of officers of the Indian Administrative Service, Indian Police Service and Indian Forest of Uttaranchal, and for allocating person el of District, Division, Hill-Sub-Cadres, and personnel working in projects in Uttaranchal. The norms recommended by the Advisory Committee, constituted as per provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2000, formed the basis for bifurcation of the All India Service Cadres. The Central Government have so far issued provisional allocation orders only for other cadres like State Administrative Service, State Police Service, State Secretariat Service and State Finance Service. Work regarding their final allocation to the successor States has been takenup by the State Advisory Committee.
